INDEBTEDNESS OF ASSEMBLY LIFTED

More Than $300 Raised by Subscription Sunday Night to Meet All Outstanding Obligations.

GREAT ADDRESS BY W. J. BRYAN

Grenadiers' Band Presents One of The Most Pleasing Numbers of the Entire Week.

Although the Seymour Chautauqua Association faced an indebtedness of approximately $300 as a result of the week's assembly, the entire deficit was wiped out by subscriptions within a few minutes Sunday night when the situation was explained by C. D. Billings, treasurer of the organization. He said that the deficit on the assembly was about $500, but that approximately $200 had been carried over from previous years. The Association lacked $300 to meet all the bills which were incurred and within a few minutes pledges ranging from $10 to $1 were taken in sufficient number to enable the Association to meet all obligations.

The manner in which the subscriptions were made indicated to many that the chautauqua movement has the support of the local people and may influence the directors to contract for another program next fall, if the talent is available at reasonable cost. The draft regulations, it is known, will remove many of the lecturers and entertainers from the chautauqua and lecture platform during the coming year.

Despite the unfavorable weather during the greater part of the week the chautauqua was a success from the standpoint of interest. The crowds on the last two days, when the weather was bright, showed that the attendance would have been during the week if the rain had not kept so many people at home.

W. J. Bryan gave a splendid address Sunday afternoon to a crowd that completely filled the chautauqua tabernacle. There is no question that a misunderstanding relative to the scope and meaning of the gasoline order by the fuel administration prevented many from a distance from attending. Comparatively few automobiles were parked at the grounds Sunday afternoon.

Before taking up his lecture "The Larger Life," Mr. Bryan spoke for fifty minutes on the war situation outlining what is being done in the prosecution of the war. He spoke of the various departments and agencies which are giving such valuable assistance at this critical time.

Mr. Bryan's main lecture, or more properly speaking, sermon, was devoted to the great place which Christianity has in the world. He defended the Christian religion and the teachings of Christ and showed the progress and advancement that it has

COMMISSIONERS CONSIDER PURCHASE OF STONE CRUSHER

Members of County Board Make Tip to New Albany to Inspect a Plant There.

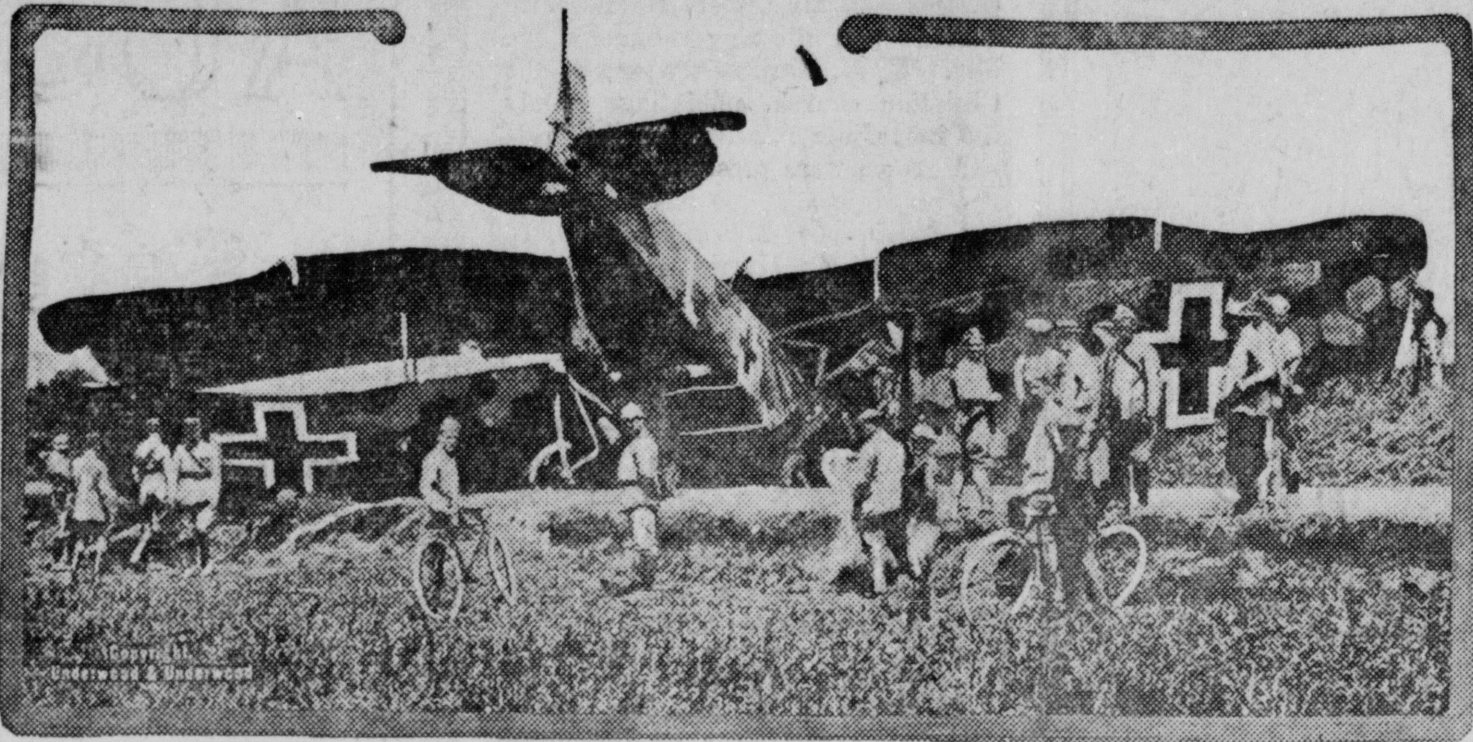

The county commissioners went to New Albany this afternoon for the purpose of inspecting a stone crushing plant near there, with the view of purchasing it, if found to be in good condition. It has been proposed that the county could crush its own gravel for road building and repairs much cheaper than the rock could be purchased and shipped to this county.

The commissioners at regular session appointed D. F. Carter as fireman at the county heating plant for another year at $75 a month. This is an increase in salary of about $25 a month.

The viewers of the J. C. Kennedy road, Carr township, reported that the road was of public benefit. One viewer filed a contrary report. The petitioners asked that the road be vacated and upon the recommendation of the viewers the petition was rejected.

The commissioners contracted with the Masters Construction Company to purchase a gravel washing machine for $400. The purchase was made on condition that the machine was in good condition.

CAPTURED HUN PLANE WITH DECEPTIVE MARKING

This German plane of the Elberstadt type shot down by French gunners was found to be marked with a cross closely resembling the emblem of the Red Cross and of the Republic of Switzerland, instead of the usual "iron cross" designation. Switzerland has complained to the German government about the use of this cross.

ACTION FILED TO TEST ORDINANCE

Henry K. Kirsch Becomes Defendant in "Dry Beer" Case Instituted in City Court.

TRIAL IS SET FOR WEDNESDAY

All of the Dealers, With Two Exceptions Keep Places of Business Without Licenses.

In accordance with the tentative agreement which was reached Saturday between representatives of the city and dealers in "dry beer," who are affected by the new license and regulatory ordinance, a test case was filed this morning in city court with Henry J. Kirsch as defendant. The eight places in the city which sell the products specified in the ordinance remain open, with two exceptions. None of the dealers will secure city licenses until an agreement is reached or the law is declared invalid. Oliver Steinberger, who conducts a place of business on East Second street, and W. T. Ross, West Second street, did not open for business this morning.

Kirsch, who it is understood is acting for all the dealers, came into court voluntarily, accompanied by his attorney, Edward P. Elsner. He told Mayor Burkart that he was conducting his business as usual, that he had not taken out a license as required by the ordinance, that he had not removed any of the screens, blinds or curtains from the windows and doors and had refused to comply with the provisions of the ordinance as he believed that it was not within the power of a city council to establish such regulations.

Mayor Burkart then communicated with John M. Lewis, city attorney, who was informed of the action that had been taken and he prepared an affidavit against Kirsch charging him with violating the ordinance. By agreement the trial was set for nine o'clock Wednesday morning in the city court with the mayor presiding. It was further stated that the case would be tried before a jury of twelve men.

Eugene Ireland, who was father of the ordinance in the city council, was at the mayor's office when Kirsch appeared with his attorney. After the preliminary action was taken and the date for the trial fixed, Ireland said that he felt that in view of the importance of the decision that it was the duty of the city council to employ additional legal assistance as two lawyers would represent the defendant. Mayor Burkart said that he did not feel disposed to

MAKES ANSWER TO PEAT'S ADDRESS

Rev. F. A. Hayward Replies to Some Expressions Used by Chautauqua Lecturer of Last Week.

MUST UPHOLD FUNDAMENTALS

Does Not Believe War Gives Any Right to Defend Lying, Profanity or Other Immoral Practices

Rev. F. A. Hayward, pastor of the First Baptist church, spoke Sunday morning on the subject, "I do not believe what Private Peat Says."

After commending the Chautauqua for the splendid programs it has brought to Seymour Mr. Hayward said he did not question many things which Private Peat said such as the unpreparedness of the Canadian troops when they went across and their lack of equipment. Neither did he question the difficulties and dangers of trench life and of battle field experiences. He stated that he does not believe it is necessary for the soldier of the American flag to become so profane and dissolute because they were in the army and exposed to its temptations any more than it is necessary for them to become profane and dissolute in their life at home where they are also exposed to temptations.

Mr. Hayward stated that in Private Peat's audience were three classes of people. First the uninformed and all of us are in that class in seeking first hand information about the war. Second, the boys and other children in the audience who look to a soldier as an ideal and these lives may be molded more or less by expressions which are given in such an address. Third, the tender hearted men and women whose

GASOLINE BAN KEPT MANY AUTOS OFF STREETS SUNDAY

Interpretation of Order is That Machines May be Used Except for Pleasure Riding.

Owing to the order issued several days ago relative to abolishing the use of automobiles for pleasure riding on Sundays, very few machines were driven in the city yesterday. As it was permissible to use automobiles to attend the chautauqua sessions, church or any regular Sunday service machines were in use in several cases yesterday, but in most instances the drivers were unaware of the newly established regulation.

In surrounding cities where drivers refused to acknowledge the authenticity of the law, citizens gathered on the street corners and stopped all cars which they thought were used for pleasure purposes. This was not necessary locally, however, and it is expected that within the next few weeks, when people are accustomed to the regulation, very few cars will be used even for business purposes.

BRITISH LAUNCH ANOTHER BLOW IN PERONNE REGION

This Assault Independent of the Canadian Attack South of the Scarpe This Morning.

NEUVE EGLISE IS CAPTURED

German Light Artillery Fire in Juvingy Section Decreasing, Indicating a Withdrawal.

HUNS SUFFER HEAVY LOSSES

Allies Have Taken 128,303 Prisoners on Western Front Between July 15 and August 1.

By United Press.
The British Fourth army attacked at 5:30 o'clock today in the region of Peronne. This assault was separate from the renewed attacks made by the Canadians south of Scarpe this morning.

This afternoon the French were reported approaching close to Coucy-le-Chateau, pushing northward along the road running from Soissons to St. Quentin. More Austrians have been taken prisoners in the vicinity of Coucy.

Franco-American pressure between the Ailette and the Aisne continues threatening enemy positions on the table lands between Vauxaillon and Margival.

The allies captured 128,303 prisoners in the fighting on the west front in France between July 15 and August 1, it was officially announced today. Of this number more than 2,000 were officers. The allies have also captured 2,069 guns, 1,734 trench mortars and 13,783 machine guns.

With Peronne already in British hands at British forces pushing forward relentlessly in the region of Lens, the allied pressure today continued steadily to drive the Germans back towards the Hindenburg line.

Repulsed by the Australians of a series of desperate counter attacks which gave the Australians final possession of Mont St. Quentin, the dominant height overlooking Peronne, settled that city's fate. The Australians quickly carried Peronne's eastern suburbs and forced the enemy to yield the entire town. Two thousand prisoners fell to the Antipodean troops during these operations.

At the same time the British exerted extremely strong pressure in the Lye sector.

Hindenburg is withdrawing steadily in this sector, and last reports indicated that the British are again threatening Lens. The British have crossed the Laws river and are approaching LaBasse on the estaires road.

Meanwhile, at the southern end of the battle front, the French and Americans continue to press forward. They have cleared the woods west of Coucy-le-Chateau and were reported today to be advancing along to road toward Lens which is less than nine miles behind the Hindenburg line along this route.

French infantry units have crossed the Somme canal east of Epanancourt and further south, have completed the captured of Rouy-le-Petit, taking 250 prisoners.

South of the Ailette, Ailette-le-Coucy has fallen to the French, the Paris war office announced. The German war office admits the relinquishment of Kemmel, explaining that "between Ypres and La Bassée we shortened our front by giving up the salient which projected towards

NO WORK AS IMPORTANT AS CONSERVING FOOD

(By C. V. Stainsby, Assistant to Dr. Harry E. Barnard, Federal Food Administrator for Indiana.)

The tendency is apparent in some communities to regard the U. S. Food Clubs as of small importance. Some women say they are too busy doing other kinds of war work to bother with food clubs. This is the wrong idea. There is no other work so important as the food work. Let's consider it for a moment. Suppose the Food Administration should fail to secure the necessary distribution of food. What would happen? Disaster would be the result. The armies of America, Britain, France, Italy and Belgium would collapse. The munition workers in the same countries would be unable to produce the machinery of war. The physicians and nurses would be unable to care for the sick and wounded. The wounded themselves would have less chance of recovery. The tragedy of the Russian collapse might easily happen in any other land if the same conditions were to prevail. Any one of these conditions would be sufficient to lose the war. Any of them or all of them could easily happen if the U. S. Food Administration fell short of its task. Can you see now the relationship between the U. S. Food Clubs and the war?

Look at it from another point of view. You are knitting a sweater for your son, your brother, your husband, your lover. How would that sweater feel over an empty stomach? You are knitting socks for the soldiers. Socks protect only the feet; food strengthens and warms the whole body. You are spending three or four afternoons a week making clothes for the children of France and Belgium. Which would make them happier, those new clothes or three good meals a day? The sewing and knitting are important. Go to it—but don't get such a false sense of proportion that you give all your time and attention to one branch of work and neglect that which is more important.

made. "The Larger Life," he said, is the life that comes from the knowledge of Christ and his teachings. He appealed to young men to throw aside the wrong ideals which they may have adopted and give their time and their energy to the church and its great cause.

Mr. Bryan was introduced by Judge O. H. Montgomery, who was president of the Interstate Oratorical Association at the same time that Mr. Bryan was secretary of the organization.

One of the most pleasing and popular entertainments of the entire week was given by the Grenadiers' Band which appeared in a prelude Sunday afternoon and a full concert Sunday night. The band originally was composed of nine members, but a service flag on one chair showed that one member had already taken his place in the armies of Freedom. The individual work of the group as well as the ensemble numbers were highly entertaining and each selection was given a resounded encore.

Miss Grace Parlette closed her work here Saturday night with a pageant which was presented by a large number of children and young ladies. The evening was given to folk dancing and Colonial steps and each part of the program was much appreciated. The crowd Saturday night was large. Miss Parlette gave her undivided attention to organized play for the children and each morning hundreds of boys and girls enjoyed the hour which she arranged for them. The public has expressed its appreciation of the untiring services which have been rendered by the directors of the association. They have given many days of their time to the work that the program might be presented under the best possible conditions and the public, especially those who have attended the assembly regularly, fully appreciate the work of this committee.

Special mention has frequently been made of the work by Judge Montgomery who has made such an excellent platform manager. During the first chautauqua this position was filled by a paid manager, but to reduce the expenses of the assembly, Judge Montgomery, president of the association, consented to serve in this capacity and no platform manager has ever filled the place better than has the association president.

Pledges are already being taken for season tickets for next year and the results of that campaign will determine this fall whether or not the assembly movement is continued next year.

He is survived by his widow and one daughter, Mrs. Wilbur Harper, also of Lafayette. Two grandchildren and several brothers and sisters also survive. Mr. Murray was united in marriage to Miss Jane Brown in Cincinnati in 1849. To them were born seven children of whom four sons and two daughters survive. John M. Murray died several years ago. The surviving children are Ralph, of Bartholomew county; Mrs. Alice Boggs, Seymour; Mrs. Mary E. Primer, Seymour; Joseph G. Murray, Little Rock, Ark.; William H. Murray, Jr., Redding township; and George Murray, Seymour. He also leaves a number of grand children and several great grandchildren. Mrs. Murray died in 1890.

In early life Mr. Murray followed the carpenter trade and for a time was identified with steam boating on the Ohio river. He came to Jackson county in 1867 and settled in Redding township where he entered upon agricultural pursuits. The land which he purchased was covered with native timber and he cleared all of it himself with the exception of about three acres. He was a hard working, energetic citizen and commanded the esteem and respect of all who came in contact with him. The funeral services will be conducted at Redding at 10:30 o'clock Wednesday morning. Burial will take place at the cemetery at Redding.

INCREASED WHEAT ACREAGE IS URGED

Goal for Jackson County Next Year Is Fixed at 42,091, Increase of 5,701 Acres.

EARLY BREAKING UNDER WAY

County Agent Emphasizes Necessity of Selecting the Very Best Seed Possible.

Jackson county will have 42,091 acres in wheat this fall, if the local farmers meet the requirements which have been made by the food administration which asks an average increase of seventeen per cent. in the wheat production next summer. A. D. Cobb, county agent, estimates that the acreage this year was 36,390 and that the county's allotted increase can be reached by sowing an additional 5,701 acres this fall. This means an average increase of two acres per farmer, he estimates.

Relative to the wheat production and the preparation of the ground, the county agent writes:

The United States Government has requested Indiana to increase her wheat average seventeen per cent. for the 1919 crop. Based on an average of 36,390 acres for 1918, this means an increase of 5,701 acres for this county or about two acres per farmer. In addition we are asked to increase the yield as much as possible.

Already a vast amount of early breaking has been done, and with the reasonable rainfall, it should be possible to put the ground in fine condition for seeding.

In this connection the question of fertilization naturally comes up, and a liberal application of phosphate is advisable, especially when land is not in a high state of fertility. Where clover or manure has not been plowed under, an application of 200 lbs. of a 2-12 fertilizer may be recommended, but where the soil is not lacking in organic matter, seventeen per cent. acid phosphate, used at the rate of 250 or 300 lbs. per acre will give excellent results and means a saving of several dollars per ton in purchasing the fertilizer.

Seed should be clean, free from weed seed and rye, and all diseases. Stinking smut was very prevalent in the county this year, and care should be taken to get seed free from smut or else treat the seed with formaldehyde before planting. The method of treating can be obtained at this office. Names of men having seed wheat for sale in other counties, can also be obtained.

We should like to call the attention of local farmers who grow rye, to the merit of the new variety called Rosen Rye. Where common rye yield from 10 to 15 bu. per acre Rosen Rye yields from 25 to 40 bushels. The heads have four rows of kernels and are completely filled out to the end. This variety was developed in Michigan, and is now being grown in a number of states and most of our northern counties. It is known to do well as far south as the Ohio river. The county agent's office has on file a list of growers who have seed for sale, and orders for more than 100 bushels have been placed. The price runs from $2.50 to $3.50 per bushel. Farmers who would cooperate in demonstrating the value of this rye and who wish to secure seed can get full information at this office.

boys are in the war and who are solicitous that their boys shall come back as clean and stronger than when they left home.

The first criticism of Private Peat's address was his strongly implied defense of rum. In this day liquor has no place in the life of a civilian or a soldier. Physicians and business men as well as captains of armies are emphasizing that liquor has no place in the efficiency of a man whatever his position of life may be, whether he be soldier or workman.

The profanity which was used all through the address was particularly objectionable. In speaking to an audience, especially an audience containing children and women, no man has a right to use language which he would not use in talking face to face in a home. Clean language is the proper vehicle for the statements in any address. A speaker should use the language in which children think, in which women think and in which clean men think. No man has any means or business to vehicle his expression in words which are unwise and ungentelemanly.

Private Peat indicated that a man cannot be a soldier without becoming rude and almost barbarous. The speaker said he did not believe it was true. A man can be clean and gentlemanly in the trenches and from statements of such men as General Pershing and from testimony brought back by observers in France the American boys are the clean, manly sort of fellows who are the type of men that we are proud to send as representatives of this great nation.

Private Peat defended lying when he was advocating writing to the boys at the front and said if the boy's mother breaks her neck do not tell the boy and tell him some other story. The speaker yesterday said that it is not right to defend lying. If a man is not strong enough to face the facts at home he is not strong enough to bear the flag of the United States. He should not be worried with the petty things of home life, but he should know the important things that were going on while he is away.

Private Peat emphasized a statement which has had wide currency since the war began that when a man goes "over the top" and gives his life as a hero he thereby receives pardon for any sins he may have committed. The speaker Sunday said that death on the battlefield itself does not atone in the sight of God for a life of wickedness. There is none other name given under heaven whereby man may be saved except through belief in Jesus Christ. Acceptance of Christ may be made at any time and may be made between the time of going "over the top" and meeting the end but eternal salvation cannot come unless a man definitely makes that acceptance.

During Private Peat's address there was much of almost sneering at the churches and church life and the man who prays, indicating that the church will be unprepared to care for the returning soldiers. The minister said that the return of our soldier boys will be a challenge to our churches. They will demand of our churches action—quicker, cleaner, clear cut action,—action that will find expression in helping the weaker brother. These men will come back with a new vision of God, with a new grip on the atoning power of Jesus Christ and with a determination to show those who are at home how to do their church work better. The returning boys will not be men to be ashamed of, not profane, dissolute

Miller's Antiseptic Oil, Known as Snake Oil

Accomplishing Most Wonderful Results

I want to thank you for your wonderful oil, states Mr. J. C. Gibson, of Jonesboro, Ark. My little girl was very low with diphtheria; I had given her two doses of medicine which cost me $10 with no results. I bought a 30c bottle of your oil and one application relieved her. Now she is well. Mr. Gibson made this statement before hundreds of people. Mrs. Florence Meager, 234 Whitney street, Hartford, Conn., writes: "I have used your Antiseptic Oil for neuralgia with good effects. Only thing I have ever tried that stopped the pain immediately." Mrs. Williams, Gadsden, Ala., writes: "I have used your great pain oil for rheumatism, stiff joints, also for sore throat, and I want to say that it is the greatest remedy I ever tried. I recommend it to all sufferers." Many cures reported daily from thousands of grateful users of this wonderful oil. Every bottle guaranteed, 30c, 60c and $1.00 a bottle, or money refunded. men, but clean minded, clean mouthed fellows with a broad fellowship and a challenge to vigorous action.

Mr. Hayward stated in summing up his address that he did not believe what Private Peat says when he defends lying, the use of liquor, profanity, gambling or that there is any atonement outside of the blood of Jesus Christ. The sermon was a clear, timely discussion of some of the fallacies which are finding some acceptance by those who have not gripped the fundamentals of life. The address emphasized in a clear cut, kindly way the importance even during these strenuous war times, of standing squarely for the things which are right and clean and in accordance with a Christian life.

Emphatically Asserts Worn Out, Lagging Men Can Quickly Become Vigorous and Full of Ambition

7 A DAY FOR 7 DAYS

Don't blame the man who is perpetually tired; his blood needs more red corpuscles and his brain and nerves are craving for food.

Given the right kind of medicine, any tired-out, inactive, lagging fellow can quickly be made into a real live, energetic and even ambitious man.

So says a student of the nervous system who advises all men and women who feel worn out and who find it hard to get up ambition enough to take a regular job to get a package of Bio-feren at any druggist. This is the new discovery that pharmacists are recommending because it is not expensive and speedily puts vigor and ambition into people who despair of ever amounting to anything in life.

People whose nerves have been wrecked by too rapid living, too much tobacco or alcohol, have regained their old-time confidence and energy in less than two weeks.

No matter how worn out you are, no matter how run down, nervous or tired out you are, get an original package of Bio-feren at once. Take two tablets after each meal and one before bedtime—seven a day for seven days—then one after each meal till all are gone.

Then if you still lack ambition; if your nerves are not steady and you haven't the energy that red-blooded, keen-minded men possess, your purchase money will be gladly returned.

Note to Physicians: There is no secret about the formula of Bio-feren, it is printed on every package. Here it is: Lecithin; Calcium Glycero-phosphate; Iron Peptonate; Manganese Peptonate; Ext. Nux. Vomica; Powdered Gentian; Phenolphthalein; Oleoresin Capsicum; Kola.

THE CHAUTAUQUA.

The promptness with which the deficit of approximately $300 of the Chautauqua Association was subscribed at the closing session, Sunday night, is unmistakable evidence of the popularity of the assembly movement. The shortage was made up by many people subscribing small amounts. In this way some of the people who strongly endorsed the chautauqua movement were able to give material assistance at a time when it was greatly needed. The rapidity with which the subscriptions were made shows that the benefits and advantages which come from the chautauqua are generally recognized.

The deficit which was incurred this year was not due to the lack of interest in the splendid numbers which were brought here, but rather to the unfavorable weather which prevailed during the greater part of the week. In fact, the large attendance on Saturday and Sunday, when the weather was good, demonstrated beyond all doubt that the people of Seymour and this locality are as deeply interested in the assembly movement as ever before.

The chautauqua makes it possible for a community to have a week's program of good talent at an exceptionally low cost. It is quite obvious that the speakers and entertainers who were brought here during the last week could not have been heard for the low admission price charged by the Chautauqua Association if they had been presented on individual contracts. The chautauqua is a co-operative affair. No one profits from the session and a surplus, if any, which remains at the close of the session goes into the chautauqua fund to be used in purchasing a better program or in meeting expenses at another time.

Too much praise cannot be given the directors of the association for their earnest and untiring efforts in making the chautauqua a success. The program was one of the strongest that has ever been presented at a local assembly. Each number was selected after the most careful investigation. The task of arranging a program for chautauqua in a city of this size is not an easy one, as the funds available are limited and the committee desires to secure the very best talent possible at a minimum cost. Previous to the opening of the assembly and during the chautauqua week the directors devoted practically all of their time to the plans and arrangements which would add to the impressiveness of the numbers and to the comfort and convenience of the audience. The public is grateful to the directors for the week they have done. They labored without compensation and their only reward is the knowledge that they have provided Seymour and the community with instructive and entertaining sessions. They are to be congratulated for the services they have rendered.

Whether or not the chautauqua movement is continued in Seymour depends upon the number of season tickets which are engaged this fall. The sale of season tickets ought to be sufficient to defray the cost of the program so that the gate receipts during assembly week could be used to meet the incidental expenses which are always considerable. Those who are in favor of the chautauqua next year ought to give it their hearty support and cooperation at this time. The chautauqua directors will be guided by the wishes of the public, and for this reason decision rests with the people.

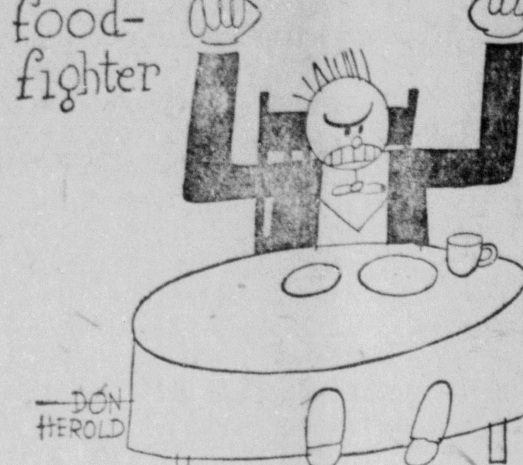

THE NEW REVENUE BILL.

The public has read a great deal about the new revenue bill by which the government is to raise the enormous sum of $8,000,000,000, yet the average reader has little appreciation of just what this measure

ONE-MINUTE FOOD TALKS

By Don Herold

An "offensive" food-fighter

Give me more food rules! Give me more I'll eat tin-roofs if it will help win the war!

IS YOUR FOOD FIGHT A DEFENSIVE FIGHT OR AN OFFENSIVE FIGHT?

Defensive fighting is all right in its place, but nobody ever won a war just by playing the part of a stone wall. This war is going to be won going east.

Now a person who says, "How much beefsteak are we allowed?" or "How much sugar are we allowed?" is a defensive food-fighter, if he is really asking to find out how much meat or sugar or wheat he is allowed. That isn't what you call going east in the food fight. It's standing still. Of course, that is something, but it won't win the war.

Over there, Germany must be crushed, tramped on, run over, humiliated, ruined, tattered, torn, tumbled, smeared and spread. This will all be done, never fear. Mr. Foch has already started it on a small scale. And over here we must all lean in the direction of the touchdown and strain towards the east goal posts. We must buy war stamps east, help the Red Cross east, and eat east.

Some folks actually have the attitude of being anxious to eat all the food the law will allow. That's a nice way to fight Germany. It's almost so nice it's negative.

It's the man or woman who says, "White flour! We haven't had two pounds in the house since February," who is the kind of food-fighter who counts.

Taking less than you are entitled to is the test. For all offensive food-fighters the food rules are just the starting point. From then on is east.

they found that the two places heretofore mentioned were closed, that George Steinkamp was still engaged in business but that he had none of the specified products for sale. The list of dealers selling so-called dry beer who have not taken out a license was given to the mayor as follows: Henry Lange, Henry J. Kirsch, Henry Niehter, Edward Steinkamp, and James Phillips. None of the wholesale dealers in the city have taken out licenses as required by the ordinance.

Mayor Burkart stated today that he did not know what action would be taken as to the other dealers who keep their places of business open without first securing a permit from the city but that the outcome of the test case would undoubtedly influence future action. There is considerable speculation as to whether or not the ordinance is valid, both sides claiming that they will be able to show that their contention is correct. Either side has a right to appeal after the trial Wednesday.

BOYS' STOCK JUDGING TEAMS GO TO INDIANA STATE FAIR

Jackson County Lads Have Been Training Under A. D. Cobb, Agricultural Agent.

Jackson county will be represented in the boys' stock judging contest at the Indiana state fair by eleven youths who have been trained for the contest by A. D. Cobb, county agent. The boys left this morning for Indianapolis. Twelve boys were to have made the trip, but one was unable to go.

The members of the teams are:

First Team—Roy Fosbrink, Alvin Lubker and Arthur Hackman.

Second Team—Frederick Mitschke and Alva Hackman.

Third Team—Frank Gray, Elmer Meahl and Cecil Cross.

War Discoveries in America.

Chicago, Sept. 2—Three startling war discoveries, two of them having a direct military value and one having a world-wide economic significance, were made public here at the stock yards today. These discoveries of the chemists in the laboratories of the packing plants, have come about as the result of continuous efforts to aid in solving war problems.

The cheese industry of the world has been rescued from the shortage of rennet, of which importations from Denmark have been grievously curtailed. A new curdling agent, Rennase, can now be made from the stomach of the hog. Rennet was obtained from the calf's stomach. Quantities of Rennase have been shipped to cheese makers in this country, in the Argentine, in England, in South Africa and in Australia. The scarcity of rennet can no longer cripple the industry.

Another discovery is thromboplastin, a blood coagulator obtained from the brain of kosher killed cattle. It was disclosed today that some of this material already has been exported to France and used there to hasten the coagulation of blood in soldiers' wounds.

The third of the revelations was that surgical ligatures, a by-product of the industry, are now being made in such wise that they will dissolve into the flesh at the end of a definite period. They are "timed" for ten, twenty or thirty days and the surgeon needs but exercise his judgment as to when the wound will heal and then select the ligature accordingly.

Obituary.

J. Thomas Hays, son of Dixon M. and Sarah Richards Hays, was born at Pleasant Grove, Jackson county, Ind., Nov. 1st, 1875, died at the home of his mother, West Third street, Seymour, Ind., on August 27th, 1918, making his age 42 years, 9 months and 26 days. He was one of a family of six children, two boys and four girls, his venerable father, two sisters and the only brother having preceded him in death. He leaves to mourn his departure a loving and devoted mother who has tenderly administered to his every want and care through his entire life, with never a murmur of complaint, and two sisters, Mrs. W. A. Miller, of Tulsa, Okla., and Mrs. Carroll Bush, of this city, and several nieces and nephews, besides other relatives and a host of admiring friends. Tom was universally known throughout the county in which he spent his entire life, having been engaged in the bill posting business for many years, but on account of ill health, he was forced to give this up a few years ago. For several years he had been the volunteer weather observer for the government, keeping accurate daily charts of the weather conditions in this locality. A strange coincidence connected with his death is that it is seventeen years ago today since he moved with his parents to this city. Tom was never a strong robust boy, but had been in poor health for the last twenty years, though his condition had been critical for the past two weeks. He was only confined to his bed the one day on which he died. He will be greatly missed.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to express our heartfelt thanks and appreciation of the assistance given to us by our friends and neighbors during the illness and following the death of our son and brother, J. Thomas Hays. We also thank the Rev. Frank Reynolds for his comforting words, F. J. Voss, the undertaker, and those who sent the beautiful flowers. The words of comfort and the kind acts of assistance and friendship during our hour of bereavement will never be forgotten. The Family.

The Joy Of Coming Motherhood

A Wonderful Remedy That is Natural Aid and Relieves the Tension.

The expectant mother revolves in her mind all we understand by destiny. And it is of the utmost importance that her physical comfort be our first thought.

There is a most splendid remedy for this purpose, known as Mother's Friend. It is applied over the muscles of the stomach, gently rubbed in, and at once penetrates to relieve strain on nerves, cords and ligaments. It makes the muscles so pliant that they expand easily when baby arrives and pain and danger at the crisis is naturally less.

Mother's Friend is for external use only. It is absolutely safe and wonderfully effective. It enables the expectant mother to preserve her health and strength and she remains a pretty mother by having avoided the suffering and danger which would otherwise accompany such an occasion. Every nerve, muscle and tendon is thoroughly lubricated.

Mother's Friend is prepared by the Bradford Regulator Co., Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. They will mail you an interesting "Motherhood Book." Write them to send it to you, and in the meantime send or phone to your druggist today for a bottle of Mother's Friend.

Every woman should aid nature in her glorious work. Mother's Friend makes it possible for you to do so, and should be used regularly, without fail, night and morning.

DOCTOR PRESCRIBED VINOL

For This Poor Mother Who Could "Hardly Drag Around."

Glasgow Jet, Ky.—"I am a farmer's wife and was suffering from a nervous breakdown—loss of flesh and poor appetite so I could hardly drag around and do the work for my family. My doctor prescribed Vinol. It not only made me well and strong but I have gained in weight," Mrs. S. M. Gray.

The reason Vinol proved such a wonderful strength creator in Mrs. Gray's case is because of the beef and cod liver peptonates, iron and manganese peptonates and glycerophosphates combined in a pure, native tonic wine, which makes Vinol the most successful tonic. NEWSY PARAGRAPHS

Corporal C. D. Reed, son of C. D. Reed of this city, writes his father that he likes his experiences in army life. He has been in France for about seven weeks and is enthusiastic over the outlook.

Mrs. G. F. Pomeroy returned from Louisville, where she attended the funeral of her sister, Miss Alice Clayton, who died August 31. The deceased fell and sustained injuries which caused her death.

Two members of the stock judging teams that went to Indianapolis today from this county will enter Purdue University next week. They are: Roy Fosbrink, son of Henry Fosbrink, of Vallonia, and Elmer Meahl, of Driftwood township.

John P. Hagel who has been serving with the navy at Norfolk, Va., for the past year, has been honorably discharged from service, on account of poor health, and returned to his home in this city last night. Since his enlistment, a year ago last month, Hagel has been in poor health and last March was granted a six weeks furlough in order that he might recuperate. For a while after returning to Norfolk his health was much improved but later he suffered a slight relapse which rendered him unfit for active service in the navy. It is probable that he will enter the army sometime later.

Husebrouck. "The German statements claimed that the retirement in this vicinity was accomplished without the notice of the British.

The presence of the Americans at the northern end of the battle front in Belgium has been revealed. They are cooperating with the British in pursuing the Germans north of Mont Kemmel.

Astride the Arras-Cambrai road the Canadians have broken through the Drocourt-Queant switch lines on a front of at least two miles, it was learned authoritatively today. They have captured Douroir on the western edge of Cadgnicourt.

The British had captured Neuve-Eglise and Sailly-Sailliset, Field Marshal Haig announced today. Neuve-Eglise is less than four miles northwest of Armentieres. Sailly-Sailliset, is five miles south of Bapaume and about the same distance of Peronne.

"We have drawn nearer to Le Transloy and Moreuil taking a number of prisoners," the statement said. "German positions south of Rein-court-Les-Cagnicourt were captured during the night. In the attacks south of the Scarpe the English and Canadian troops this morning were reported making good progress in the Lys sector. We have reached the Lys river east of Estaires, capturing Neuve Eglise."

Strong German counter attacks in the region of Juvigny were repulsed today by the Americans who went out to meet the boches in the open, hurling them back with heavy losses. The German light artillery fire has begun to decrease and may indicate a withdrawal of their light guns, owing to further American progress in this region. American artillery bombarded the enemy positions heavily all day.

With French outposts up the gates of Coney-le-Chateau, less than two miles from the Hindenburg line, Franco-American troops are advancing westward along the road towards Laon, the most important point behind this section of the Hindenburg line. The woods between the Ailette and Chauny and the railroad in that vicinity have been occupied.

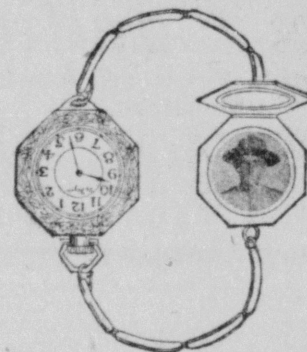

New progress in the woods west of Coney-Le-Chateau, and east of Pont-St. Mar, two miles southwest of Coney, was announced by the war office today.

FLOUR RULINGS IN EFFECT SEPTEMBER 1, '18

By Dr. Harry E. Barnard,
 Federal Food Administrator for Indiana

The new flour rulings which become effective September 1, 1918, are as follows:

1. All flour rules and regulations now in effect are canceled. This order applies to all regulations and rules issued from this office as well as to all special rules and regulations issued in the several counties, cities and towns.

2. The bread of the Allies, including our own people, will contain 20 per cent. of other grains than wheat.

3. The 80-20 formula, which takes the place of the 50-50 formula, is not intended to displace the use of corn bread. The 80-20 formula is used in addition to our normal consumption of corn bread.

4. Retail dealers selling standard wheat flour must carry in stock either barley flour, corn meal or corn flour and with every sale of wheat flour shall sell a combination of some one or more of these in the proportion of one pound of substitutes to each four pounds of wheat flour.

5. No dealer may force any other substitute in combination upon the consumer and the substitutes must conform to the standards fixed by the United States Food Administration.

6. The following flours may be sold in combination with standard wheat flour in lieu of all barley flour, corn meal, or corn flour, if the consumer so demands, at the ratio of one pound to each four pounds of wheat flour, namely, rice flour, oat flour, buckwheat flour, potato flour, bean flour, sweet potato flour, kafir flour, milo flour, feterita flour and meals of the last three named flours.

7. Pure rye flour or meal will be sold as a substitute in the proportion of at least two pounds of rye with three pounds of wheat flour.

8. The foregoing rules apply to all custom and exchange transactions and to the farmer as well as to city and townspeople.

9. The previous rule limiting licensed millers, wholesalers and bakers to a thirty-day supply of flour is changed to permit the stocking of a sixty-day supply.

10. The rules limiting the sales by retailers of wheat flour to one-eighth of a barrel in cities and one-fourth of a barrel in sparsely settled districts are rescinded. There are no limitations as to the amount of flour which may be sold to a consumer at a single purchase.

11. Mixed flours prepared for sale by millers, wholesalers and retailers according to the Victory mixed flour formula may be sold without substitutes, but in no case shall the price be greater than in the case of standard wheat flour.

These rulings are issued in accordance with the instructions received in a telegram from Herbert Hoover. They are subject to modification and amendment from time to time. Special instructions will be issued for the guidance of millers and bakers.

Violations reported to the state food administrator during the week, and penalties assessed therefor, follow:

Sam Pontelloe, grocer, Ft. Wayne, ordered to close for a month for selling wheat flour without substitutes; Christ Tsetse, Sack Bodigan and M. Derloshen, grocers, Ft. Wayne, deprived of the privilege of selling sugar for thirty days for violating Sunday closing order; G. Barry Tolan, administrator for Allen county.

Charles Cutilla and Andrew Cantina, grocers, of Gary, fined $50 and $4 for selling wheat flour without substitutes; J. Ross Cole and Dr. T. B. Templin deprived of 150 and 75 pounds of sugar respectively on charges of hoarding; R. G. Parry, administrator for Gary.

J. M. Jennings of North Manchester deprived of 8,000 pounds of sugar and certificates for 1,885 pounds; J. D. Beck of Wabash deprived of 2,000 pounds and certificates for 5,000 pounds; Scott Davis, administrator for Wabash county.

Double Funeral.

Probably the largest funeral service ever held at Borchers was conducted there Sunday afternoon over the bodies of the late Frank Cordes and Martin Trimpe, victims of an automobile accident Thursday morning. The Rev. H. Zumhlingst, pastor of the church, officiated. It is estimated that the crowd which assembled at and around the church was the largest that has ever gathered there. The funeral of the late Oscar Trimpe, the third victim of the accident, was held Sunday morning at the Waymansville Lutheran church and was also largely attended.

CURE FOR BONE DISEASES

Baltimore Physician Claims to Have Made Discovery.

Frederick D. Pridham, a medical student of Baltimore, after four years' work on bone diseases, discovered that double nitro oxide salt causes absorption of the diseased marrow and healing of the bone disease from the inside toward the surface. He reports 83 cases cured in from three weeks to seven months. A sanitarium and hospital has been established there. The method has been donated to the United States army.

Olive Oil Scarce.

Olive oil is fast becoming an extinct commodity, due to the war. Owing to the shortage prices have advanced nearly 200 per cent in some instances.
